

Subject: Uniregistry RSP Notice / MMX Migration of ICM Registry TLDs

Dear Registrar,

Following recent MMX announcements, you have received, Uniregistry is delighted to have been selected as the Registry Service Provider (RSP) for MMX's ICM Registry portfolio of TLDs - .porn .sex .adult & .xxx

Our goal is to make this transition as seamless as possible for you, facilitating a simple and effective process for accessing the Uniregistry platform.

Here are a few key dates and details to keep in mind:

- RSP Migration – 29/10/19: collective TLD migration (.sex .porn .adult .xxx) will start at 16:00 UTC on Tuesday 29th October 2019 and is estimated to complete by 20:00 UTC. We will provide a detailed schedule along with an updated estimate close to the migration date. We will send both a migration 'reminder' and successful 'conclusion' notice to you.
- Registrar On-boarding – from 09/09/19: we're almost ready – please expect to receive login details and instructions for the registrar console next week – starting Monday 9th September. We welcome and encourage you to on-board as soon as possible so you have the necessary time to setup and test – and of course we're here to help.
- Highlights of the on-boarding process:
 - Uniregistry will create Registrar accounts in both OT&E and Production
 - Registrars already connected to Uniregistry; we will copy your existing account information into the new instance. You will use the same certificates and passwords you currently use for connecting to our EPP servers
 - Registrars who have not yet accredited with Uniregistry will receive an invitation to onboard.
- Finance & Billing: ICM will retain finance & billing responsibilities – please contact ICM for more information.

We're here to help – so if you have any questions regarding the migration and associated on-boarding process, please contact Uniregistry's dedicated support team for the ICM migration at – icm-support@mmx.co

Any queries directly for ICM &/or MMX, please contact their support team at support@mmx.co or visit the ICM Migration Website for regular updates & information.

Kindest regards
